

quilters on film

If you missed screenings of Stitched, the Film in either Paducah or Houston, we have good news—it's available on DVD. This engaging documentary from Picturesmith Productions follows award-winning and controversial quilt artists Hollis Chatelain, Caryl Bryer Fallert and Randall Cook as they create entries for the 2010 International Quilt Festival in Houston. The film also explores our quilting world—from friendships to fabric stores.

home sweet home

Using their Hometown fabric collection for Moda Fabrics as inspiration, the gals at Sweetwater have created a delightful assortment of canvas art prints and sweet charms. We fell in love with the Hometown Alphabet and Sewing Words subway 8" x 10" prints shown here, but there are several to choose from—and many can be customized. If you prefer to wear your art, the vintage-looking charms are just the ticket. (art prints, prices vary; charms, $9.50;
