

Bonding Moments

If you love using fusible for appliqué, hemming, tacking facings in place and assorted other tasks, Therm O Web's HeatnBond FeatherLite will be a must-have for your notions stash. It joins the company's other weights of fusible adhesives, but is whispery light to avoid any hint of stiffness even on the lightest of fabrics. Available by the yard and 17" wide, this lightweight can even be run through an inkjet printer to transfer your design shapes, or used with home die-cutting machines. For more information, visit www.thermoweb.com. To win a package, see Great Giveaways on page 95.

Sample Spree

Have you ever bought the same fabric twice, or struggled to coordinate a fabric with another by memory? If the answer to either of those is yes, then Swatch Buddies is what you need. These clever plastic "palettes" link together on a chain to hold small pieces of your stash that need to be paired up with something newly purchased, or to simply keep track of your "inventory." The kit comes with adhesive strips to attach the swatches and labels to record the information about each one for the underside of the tag. Kits are available with 12, 24 or 48 swatch palettes, and a refill kit is also available if you need additional pieces. $5.95 to $21.95. For more information, visit www.swatchbuddies.com. To win a Swatch Buddy for yourself and a friend (two), see Great Giveaways on page 95.

Taking Care

Once you've put hours into making a fabulous garment, you want to take good care of it. Mary Ellen's Best Wash does just that. Tests have proven this is the safest cleaner and stain remover for any textile item. It has a neutral pH, contains no bleach, caustics or phosphates; is low-sudsing and safe for all fabrics. This high-efficiency laundry detergent is also a safe stain remover for ink, food, blood, grease and most "mystery" substances. Only a small capful of this lavender scented product is needed for hand washing and two ounces for machine washing. $17.99, 16 oz. For more information, visit www.maryellenproducts.com. To win a bottle, see Great Giveaways on page 95.
